

Fire Safety Regulations for business

Fire Regulations - Fact not Myth

The Devon & Somerset Fire & Rescue Service, supported by Business Link, is pleased to invite you to an informal and free business lunch to unravel the myths associated with fire safety regulations for business.

We will explain in clear, concise terms, the implications of the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005 upon businesses, many of whom do not comply with current requirements of the Fire Safety Order and are putting themselves at risk. After attending this event, you will leave with a greater understanding of the requirements and a helpful toolkit to guide you through the process of compliance.

This is an increasingly important issue, as the emphasis is now on individual businesses to manage any fire risk in their premises. Fire authorities no longer issue fire certificates and those previously in force will have no legal status. So don't take a risk; join us at this free event, sponsored by Business Link.
